From the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 10.] If I We see by an advertisement in another column, that Messrs. Comstock & Co., the Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have deputies to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere. We know a lady of this city, whose bair was so nearly gone, as to expose entirely her phrenological developments. which, considering that they betokened a most amiable disposition, was not, in reality, very unfortunate. Nevertheless she mounted the loss of locks that she had worn, and, after g year's fruitless resort to miscalled restoratives, purchased, some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now ringlets in rich profusion, glossy and of raven blackness. We are not puffing none of the commodity has been sent to us, and, indeed, we do not wunt any, for, though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, through its virtues, hair enough, and of a passable quality of our own.
